

HOW DOES THE LITTLE FREE LIBRARY WORK?

The Kirk Centre's Little Free Library is an easy way for neighbors to help neighbors to share and exchange books and literature.

Even though its home is on the Kirk Centre property, this Library belongs to all of us. Please take care of it and the space around it. Only take the books you can read in a week or two and leave the rest for others.

GIVE WHAT YOU CAN by donating gently used or new books and DVDs all year round. Donations can be made to the Kirk Centre staff or Little Free Librarian Volunteer. Please give only what you would want to receive. Kirk Centre can only keep items that are current, unoffensive and in good condition. No gift is too small. A single book can help. Kirk Centre will not accept bags or boxes dropped at the front door without prior communication.

TAKE ONLY WHAT YOU NEED. If you want a book or two, take them and know the community cares about you. This Library works on the honor system and is designed to be self-regulated so that you may take books without the need to ring the bell and ask. We do have more books available inside Kirk Centre which are available to you at the ring of the bell during office hours. Please remember the Library belongs to all of us so take only a few at a time and leave items for others who are also in need. Trust that the Little Free Library will be here for you again in the future.

Little Free Library

HOW DOES THE LITTLE FREE LIBRARY WORK?

The Kirk Centre's Little Free Library is an easy way for neighbors to help neighbors to share and exchange books and literature.

Even though its home is on the Kirk Centre property, this Library belongs to all of us. Please take care of it and the space around it. Only take the books you can read in a week or two and leave the rest for others.

GIVE WHAT YOU CAN by donating gently used or new books and DVDs all year round. Donations can be made to the Kirk Centre staff or Little Free Librarian Volunteer. Please give only what you would want to receive. Kirk Centre can only keep items that are current, unoffensive and in good condition. No gift is too small. A single book can help. Kirk Centre will not accept bags or boxes dropped at the front door without prior communication.

TAKE ONLY WHAT YOU NEED. If you want a book or two, take them and know the community cares about you. This Library works on the honor system and is designed to be self-regulated so that you may take books without the need to ring the bell and ask. We do have more books available inside Kirk Centre which are available to you at the ring of the bell during office hours. Please remember the Library belongs to all of us so take only a few at a time and leave items for others who are also in need. Trust that the Little Free Library will be here for you again in the future.

Little Free Library

HOW DOES THE LITTLE FREE LIBRARY WORK?

The Kirk Centre's Little Free Library is an easy way for neighbors to help neighbors to share and exchange books and literature.

Even though its home is on the Kirk Centre property, this Library belongs to all of us. Please take care of it and the space around it. Only take the books you can read in a week or two and leave the rest for others.

GIVE WHAT YOU CAN by donating gently used or new books and DVDs all year round. Donations can be made to the Kirk Centre staff or Little Free Librarian Volunteer. Please give only what you would want to receive. Kirk Centre can only keep items that are current, unoffensive and in good condition. No gift is too small. A single book can help. Kirk Centre will not accept bags or boxes dropped at the front door without prior communication.

TAKE ONLY WHAT YOU NEED. If you want a book or two, take them and know the community cares about you. This Library works on the honor system and is designed to be self-regulated so that you may take books without the need to ring the bell and ask. We do have more books available inside Kirk Centre which are available to you at the ring of the bell during office hours. Please remember the Library belongs to all of us so take only a few at a time and leave items for others who are also in need. Trust that the Little Free Library will be here for you again in the future.

Little Free Library